

Sanjeevini- EOI from consultants to provide strategic direction for implementation of intensive block strategy

Individuals who have management expertise and significant experience in working with national and international livelihoods projects are requested to submit their CVs for consideration. The consultancy will be for 10-15 man days.

Qualification of consultant:

1. Experience in planning and strategic management of state and national level programmes for atleast 10 or more years.
2. Experience of working as consultant in the World Bank and/or UN programmes for 3 or more years.
3. Experience in having knowledge and expertise of operations such as federating and strengthening SHGs, managing fund flows to the federations and disbursement of funds to SHGs based on Micro Investment Plan/ Micro Credit Plan.
4. Have expertise in multi state and international livelihood projects
5. Preferably having an advanced university degree (post graduate)

The CVs may be sent to: recruitment.cnslt@gmail.com before 27th December 2014.
Only shortlisted candidates will be called for the interview process.